Life at The Jays

At The Jays, we believe that every day should be filled with purpose, enjoyment, and opportunities for personal growth. Our team works closely with each individual to create meaningful daily routines that reflect personal interests, abilities and aspirations.

We encourage and support individuals to build confidence, develop independence, and maintain or rediscover the simple joys of daily living – whether that's preparing a favourite meal, exploring a new hobby, or reconnecting with the community.

Our location in The Grove, Merthyr Tydfil, provides plenty of opportunities to enjoy community life. Individuals can access local shops, cafés, and leisure facilities, or take part in community-based activities such as:

- Visiting the Redhouse Arts & Creative Industries Centre, with its exhibitions, workshops, and events.
- Enjoying walks in Cyfarthfa Park and Castle, a historic estate with beautiful gardens, lakes, and woodland trails.
- Making use of Merthyr Tydfil Leisure Centre, offering swimming, fitness, and accessible sports activities.
- Exploring local history at the Cyfarthfa Museum or enjoying cinema trips at the nearby Vue Cinema.
- Taking part in volunteering opportunities, local groups, and church or community events to build social connections.

With easy access to public transport, there are also opportunities for day trips to nearby towns and the Brecon Beacons National Park – perfect for those who enjoy nature, fresh air and adventure.

Life at The Jays is about more than just support – it's about creating a warm, homely environment where each individual can thrive, try new things, and feel a true sense of belonging within both the home and the wider community.
